Break Down All Your Walls

I saw her on the street just the other day
She couldn't believe her life had turned out this way I told her I was sorry and would love to talk tonight
And she said baby you know, you can make it alright

And I said you know why I'm here
I'm gonna break them all down, break down all your walls
Break down all your walls

I know she finds it tough and sometimes I do too
But we have each other so there's nothing we can't do I will pick her up if we start to fall
And she would do the same or we'd have nothing at all

And I said you know why I'm here
I'm gonna break them all down, break down all your walls
Break down all your walls

So let it go tonight
A true heart is hard to find
So let it go tonight
And we'll see the morning light

And I said you know why I'm here
I'm gonna break them all down, break down all your walls

Lift Me Up

Well I woke up this morning didn't feel so right
Had a lot on my head, I was wound up tight Then you came along

The news again had me so depressed
This world we love is in a mess Can someone save us now?

Yeah left me up, lift me up, lift me up, lift me up Lift me up, come on and save my soul
Yeah left me up, lift me up, lift me up, lift me up
Lift me up, come on and save my soul

Well they all play for political gain Handing out bullshit its all the same Can anyone real come along?

Another hurricane hits, the ice caps melt Everyone running, yeah running like hell What in this world is going on?

Yeah left me up, lift me up, lift me up, lift me up
Lift me up, come on and save my soul
Yeah left me up, lift me up, lift me up, lift me up
Lift me up, come on and save my soul

Sometimes I smile and try to hide
The fact that I'm burning up inside Trying to find the Zen in me

Yeah left me up, lift me up, lift me up, lift me up
Lift me up, come on and save my soul
Yeah left me up, lift me up, lift me up, lift me up
Lift me up, come on and save my soul

Razor

Yeah tonight I'm gonna find you No matter where you hide Tonight I'm gonna find you Cause I'm burning up inside Girl I've got a fever of a hundred and five And you're the one to cure me

*Well you play so hard to get It's just a game for you Yeah you like to play so hard to get
And keep me guessing too Girl I can't take anymore I'm burning up inside
You can run but tonight your mine*

*Cause I'm a razor/ coming at you/ gonna cut deep inside You've got me burning/ my heart is pounding/ your mine tonight
Cause I'm a razor/ coming at you/ gonna cut deep inside
You know you can run but you never hide And I'm not so sure you want to*

Fly Far Away

I don't want to hear about how better it could get This time I'm on my own Still waiting for a change that hasn't happened yet My heart is turning to stone

But tell me there is a way so we can bring it all back Somewhere there must be some kind of spark Or maybe we are too far gone and can't find the way home Without you baby these nights are so dark

Right now I need to fly far away fly far away
Right now I need to fly far away fly far away
Right now I need to fly far away fly far away
Right now I need to fly far away fly far away
From today

So I let it go and you came back But nothing in heart had ever changed
Then you wanted everything the way you wanted it And I just did not feel the same

Right now I need to fly far away fly far away
Right now I need to fly far away fly far away
Right now I need to fly far away fly far away
Right now I need to fly far away fly far away
From today

Down By The Shoreline

I'm tired of feeling like a failure my friend It feels like I missed some kind of boat Lately loneliness is hard to take And now I think about my mistakes

There was a time when the sun would shine We'd walk hand in hand breathing in the air Life was a bit more simple it seemed So maybe this pain will pass?

*We would drink our wine and watch the sun go down Down by the shoreline down by the shoreline
We would dream as laughter slips off in the night
Down by the shoreline down by the shoreline*

There are those who wondered but never tried There are some who burned the candle at both ends Well I've got broken dreams and I can't go back To a place I'd love to be again

Down by the shoreline down by the shoreline

Waiting For You

Well most days just rip on by
And some days never end I'm waiting for you in this restaurant Waiting for you again

I wanted to talk with you but I'm sitting here all alone Seems like this episode is getting old

Waiting for you once again
Wondering if you got the letter I sent Wishing you didn't keep running away
Waiting for you again and again

Who said it would be easy
Two hearts from broken dreams
I promised you I would always be there Guess nothing is the way it seems

I wanted to say I love you but I'm on my own I would have been there but that you already know

Waiting for you once again
Wondering if you got the letter I sent
Wishing you didn't keep running away
Waiting for you again and again

Highway

Another cup of coffee and the scene plays again and again Streetlights whizzing by like better days for you and I Another accident and I'm delayed to be with you Anyway who knows, you may have better things to do

Alone on the highway, trying to get back to you Things didn't go our way but I still want the truth

Well the sun began to rise and I felt rejoiced Maybe good karma is with me maybe there still is a choice
When I pull off exit 63 I dream of better days for you and me Yeah the big train will go by, I'll cross the river and want you by my side

Alone on the highway, trying to get back to you
Things didn't go our way but I still want the truth

Now I'm nearing the exit, emotions are burning Wondering what you'll say, my stomach is turning

Thinking about going by the old church then by the school Thinking about times we laughed, girl I never forgot you Well I know you moved on and I'm the last one you want to see So I turn off the blinker, and just keep going way past exit 63

Walk Alone

Well I'm tired of coming out on the losing end
Had a few drinks and I'm on the bottom again
What I need is someone to show me the way
What I really need is a friend

See I'm out of work and I just can't catch a break And I'm not so sure the Lord wants to hear my prayers anymore Seems like I've been here a dozen times But my girl stands by me though her heart sometimes aches

And I want to be everything you don't see in me

Don't want to walk this road alone
I'm tired and wish I were home
Don't want to walk this road alone
But I can't find you

What happened to a time where you can work your way up?
What happened to a time where all you needed was the truth?
Now the rich get richer and the poor just stay poor
What happened to me what happened to you?

And I want to be everything you don't see in me

Don't want to walk this road alone
I'm tired and wish I were home
Don't want to walk this road alone
But I can't find you

Faith Healer

Faith healer have you got anything for me?
Some doubt you and your credibility

But I've got nowhere else to turn
And the sickness in me burns
Is there anyone real in you?
Or is taking money what you do?

There was a time when I could think clear There was a time for a beautiful sunset
There was a time to hold you But now this kills my every thought

But I've got nowhere else to turn
And the sickness in me burns
Please tell me your for real Please melt my heart of steel

See there is nowhere left to run
And I can't accept my time here is done

Faith healer have you got anything for me?

Secret Place

I want to run through your hills
I want to laugh under the sun
I want to swim in your rivers Isn't great to be young?

I want to climb your tallest tree
And watch the setting sun
I can feel the ocean breeze
Isn't great to be young?

Cause here I could get so lost
And disappear without a trace
As long as I have you
And the beauty of our secret place

So we sip a little wine And watch the sailboats calmly go by All of life should be like this
On a star tonight I will wish

Cause here I could get so lost
And disappear without a trace
As long as I have you

Tears That Lie

I believe we've been down here
A thousand times before Yeah on the same street corner
And now I'm back for more
But I'll tell you something baby
This time I'm slamming the door

Well you cried so many times
And I used to believe you Yeah you cried so many times That I believed you were true
But I'll tell you something baby
This time you're on your own

Cause you've got tears that lie You cry but you've got another plan You've got tears that lie
You want me to stay but there's no way I can

Don't bother calling me Cause I ain't got time for you Please just let me be Before I do something I don't want to do Please let the door hit your ass
So I can live my life again

(Repeat chorus)

I Think You Know

Hey babe its late September and what a beautiful day Were on our favorite boardwalk and clouds are blowing away Take a look at the ocean what a gorgeous blue There is no one I'd rather be with than you

So tell me baby that you feel the same I'll confess my love and between us no games Come on lets go running through the sand We'll stay until the sunset holding hands

Tonight I think you know
What I'm going to say
Tonight I think you know
We've been taking it slow
And now I got tell you I love you

Over there is an old couple and they still look in love
I hope one day that could be us I ask the sky above Cause I'm looking a true love and a bit of honesty I'll be there for you and you for me

Tonight I think you know
What I'm going to say
Tonight I think you know
We've been taking it slow
And now I got to tell you I love you

I Would Give You The World

I see you lonely and afraid And me I pretend I'm brave Sometimes I wish that I could be Someone other than me

I know your heart has been crushed
But I have always loved you so much I need to tell you what's inside Then maybe you'll want to try

I would give you the world
I would give you the world
I would give you the world
I would give you the world
But your thoughts are so far away

I drive by the water and clear my mind
But my feelings of you won't subside And you've got pain your going through And my pain just deals with you

I would give you the world
I would give you the world
I would give you the world
I would give you the world
But your thoughts are so far away

Near The End Of Summer

Could you meet me tonight? / I've been waiting all day
You know this feels so right / and time is slipping away

Bring a jacket my darling / the boardwalk will be cool We'll get something to eat / and dream like lovers do

You know I think there is a spell that you put on me
No matter what I do you're all that I see

Broken dreams and broken hearts are blowing away
You've got to believe me when I tell you I am here to stay

I know you've been through so much / and it's hard to believe That two hearts can be true / and you're the one I need

Your eyes are like the ocean / so blue and so distant Please take my hand / and let go of resistance

You know I think there is a spell that you put on me
No matter what I do you're all that I see

Tonight

Too bad we ended in a fight
And now I'm driving away
The heat is rising off the road I've got nothing to say

But we've been going through some changes I know that is no excuse And we've been hurting each other
It seems like all we do

Tonight I can't sleep, can't breathe, I need to find you
But you're nowhere to found, I'm looking all over town
Tonight I need you, there's something you need to hear Girl we need to save our love before it disappears

Remember all those years ago We'd take some walks on the sand
The future was bright and so unknown Walking hand in hand

So whatever happened to us?
We were so crazy in love
Now all we do is pick up what fell Can we rise above?

Tonight I can't sleep, can't breathe, I need to find you
But you're nowhere to found, I'm looking all over town
Tonight I need you, there's something you need to hear
Girl we need to save our love before it disappears

Alone On This Mountain

Another day we wasted away

Another day we don't see eye to eye Another battle and you slam the door There's nothing left but tears we cry

When we fell in love we thought it would never end We thought we'd die in each other's kiss
But nothing in this world comes that easy And we can't carry on like this

The only love you will ever find
Is the love you bring with you
I'm alone on this mountain
And this is nothing new

We all need something to believe in And I would have always been there But the screaming and all the drama Made me think you didn't care

I can't take away all of your pain I've got enough of my own I can only offer the love I have And my little place I call home

The only love you will ever find
Is the love you bring with you

One More Try

She turned and said goodbye then I wanted to die
This time we knew we were through One bet too many there was nowhere to run
And there was nowhere left to hide

You see I was somebody once it didn't start out this way
I had money I had her and so many dreams Then there were too many people I needed to pay So I took a chance and became someone I didn't want to be

I lost everything when I lost her
I swore I'd stop but went back on my word
So now she's gone and I'm rolling the dice
Maybe I could win it back with one more try

She called to say hi and I thought it was more than that She heard I was playing again she would never come back I said please wait honey you know I hit big last night
She said I'm scared for you then we started to fight

Please listen baby with out you I don't know what I would do
She said guess I'll take that chance, for you it should be nothing knew

I lost everything when I lost her
I swore I'd stop but went back on my word
So now she's gone and I'm rolling the dice

Dreamers

There was once a time when we felt free
There were stars in the sky and we wanted them You had a girl and there was one I'd see Remember how we'd get lost in the big city?

Well the city seemed magic with endless possibilities And we were on the verge of becoming responsible Yeah the magic was fading every year it seemed And life got the better of us and we traded in our dreams

Dreamers they once called you and me
We'd watch the sunset and talk about ruling the world
Dreamers they once called you and me
We didn't live the dream but got what we needed

Two young friends getting into too much trouble Trying to get a piece of life we couldn't afford Playing in bands and waiting for some kind of break
We wanted it all we wanted so much more

Dreamers they once called you and me
We'd watch the sunset and talk about ruling the world
Dreamers they once called you and me
We didn't live the dream but got what we needed

Well now were so much older but we can still laugh
We were so lucky or maybe angels watched over you and me
So many crazy times but somehow we pulled through So many loved ones gone but I guess life still goes on

Rear View Mirror

well i felt the need to throw off your chains one more heart doing time and another in pain i was tired of living my life this way and you were so sure I was gonna stay you're already in my rear view mirror I'm just beginning to see things clear well i was beaten and dragged through the mud, now I'm the one you'll be thinking of well you showed no emotion you had to look cool too many years i was the one playing the fool and i tried to give you a chance to explain you just laughed and blew your smoke in my face its all about you its all for you the whole world should drop the whole world should stop if you wanted it to

It Dont Matter

well we tried so hard to keep it together but i guess it wasn't meant to be you had your issues and i had mine but can't let go of whats inside me once a fire burned in our soul we felt it when we locked in a kiss we were lost in each others gaze and then we fell apart like this i only wanted to hold you your heart would beat with mine but lately we've been killing each other feels like a part of me has died it dont matter it dont matter i keep telling myself it dont matter that theres somebody else it dont matter and its time to move on it dont matter i have accepted your gone it dont matter

now i still think about those crazydays how we laughed so hard we would cry so it hit me when you turned and walked away and your love for me now you deny you wanted me to be your everything once you wouldn't let go then you cut me and it started to sting another heart to overthrow

it dont matter

Looking For Me

rain falls upon my windshield this empty day fits the way i feel she never found any hero in me guess its not so easy to be rain began to pour as thunder sounds yeah outside you cant see my tears falling down part of me wishes i could let you go this once open door is starting to close someday you will think of me somewhere you will think of me some way you will think of me somehow i will find my reason to be if the answers are looking for me i'm tired and i dont want to feel this way i'm burned out and broken i've got nothing to say dont want to stay in this dark place again maybe i should call a real good friend someday, somewhere, some way, somehow

State Line

another night goes by and i've got nothing much to say i'm sitting next to an angry guy with that dead look in his eyes looking into my stale coffee i think man i've had enough i dont want to spend my life on the road anymore another rest stop and i go breezing by man my family is all alone back home the other night my wife and i had a fight and i never got a chance to apologize crossing another state line miles and miles from my home wishing i could hold you in my arms right now wishing there was some other way well i've got to make a living and its too late to become somebody else i've got bills no honest man can pay and this tired road is dark and lonely without you crossing another... praying that i hold you once again

Need You

well now i see thing a little clear than before we should hold to what we believe and nothing more its not easy to stand up and fight to be heard but its even harder to hide and never say a word well i have turned away when i should have stayed worked too hard when i should have played and gave away too much of me became someone i did not want to be so can we live for tonight pretend everything's all right forget the pain that brings us down baby i love you and need you everyone has dreams and i hate to see them die but the world grows cold and pressure makes us fight we have ripped away so much of me and so much of you and we know thats not what two lovers in love would do so can we..... so can we try to live the dream then life wont be as hard as it seems i hope angels give us peace

baby i love you and need you

My Little Girl

when they first handed you to me i fell in love so instantly and i thought how could there be fighting and wars? tears fell as i thanked the lord above tears fell as i kissed your little face and for the first time i truly knew what love was for the first time i fell in love my little girl please stay my little girl my little girl i will always love you and i prayed for the strength to be the greatest dad you could ever have oh little girl how you changed my world i would do anything for you i would even die for you if i had to you are the greatest gift i could have asked for my little girl.....

and when your days get too rainy i will pray for you the sun will shine and i wish my mom could have met you but life doesn't always go the way we want it to

Beautiful Light

everyday that goes by you amaze me my love grows deeper in an endless sea you are my son a strong and beautiful child and may the angels always watch over you beautiful light beautiful light like the many stars at night you are my

beautiful light

i have a picture of my dad holding you he was so proud i had a son that he left just after you turned one one day you'll know the love i feel for you one day i'll wish that i were young again one day you'll take a picture of me with your child and one day i will have to leave you too

beautiful light

Thoughts in August

the wind is blowing the tall sweet grass it almost sounds like a conversation the sky is blue and the clouds are dancing maybe its something in the air maybe its because of you my girl is leaping each footprint in the sand my boy cant walk yet but he is laughing its days like these i thank the lord above its days like these pray would never end

when i hold your hand try to understand i'm not perfect and love takes love and love takes time

in this crazy world there is still so much to believe in in this crazy world there still is so much to hold on to when i'm far away and all alone i wonder what i'm missing back at home

i'm not perfect and love takes love and
love takes time

feel the rays from the warm sun its a beautiful day and good to be alive
when i hold your hand try to understand...

Leaving Soon

we ran on the beach we kicked up the sand we felt the warm sun as we took in the air and we didn't know what it was to feel young we only knew that life was a dream we felt so safe with mom and dad near we felt so alive and laughed all day they protected us from all that was bad god we never thought this would end

and now he is leaving soon
maybe he will find her when he passes on maybe one day we will find them again

now we have kids of our own how we love them and how we love to watch them play and grow i wish to hide them from all that is bad and i pray they always stay safe there still is so much to say and so little time but there is peace in him so there is peace in me maybe its better this way you know i cant speak without falling apart

maybe one day we will find them again maybe we will get the answers we need maybe one day we could laugh again

Old Stories By the Seaside (Savin Rock)

i come back to the ocean to let things go or is it something more? the past always has a way of washing up on shore the sun was burning bright as we ran through the sand mom and dad were swinging me as they each held a hand i could still hear the merry go round i recall being so young circus lights and summer nights one for all and all for one we were certain this place was held as a magical place it was great growing up here but now the beach had changed these are the same old stories about the seaside and i have heard them all before these are the same old stories about the seaside and someday you'll have your own that you will live for so many lovers have come and so many lovers faded away secrets were told as friendships and promises were made the boardwalk always seemed to have a life of its own now its a bit torn down but this lonely beach i still call home so many fights over who would win the girl too much drink and smoke and scotty began to hurl the police came and there was nowhere to run they got us on the pier because they had the guns

stories about the seaside and someday you'll have

i used to hear of how different it was the roller coaster the fun house man there was a buzz people came from the surrounding states it was the disney of the fifties before it got too late the local cops could not stop the gangs and bloodshed too much crime and they knew soon someone would wind up dead so in the early sixties they began to tare the seaside carnival down i was young but i remember some of the rides being brought to the ground

stories about the seaside and someday you'll have

Finish Line

seems like these twenty years just flew right by seems like the clock wasn't on my side there was a way to watch the setting sun now you can only find me on the run

is there anyone who can slow down time for a little while life has become a runaway train and now i'm out of style

down time for a little while everybody racing for the finish line
but nobody has a smile everything is now nobody wants to wait all of us pile too much on the plate oh i remember a time when we walked free but yesterday was gone at the count of three

become a runaway train and now

everybody racing for the finish line

Welcome To The Show

some never think about it some live their lives back there some always dwell upon it and some will say they dont care some do all they can to hide some are cowards for their cause some always get a free ride when they did nothing at all

welcome to the show
did you really want to know?
all the worlds a stage
yes your part of the show

some deserve a better place and some never had to work for it they are the ones who laugh in your face they live their lives in fear they pretend to know it all and some believe they really do some will say you think too much some lie and cant get enough

welcome to the show
did you really want to know?
yes your part of the show
yes we are all part of the show!!!!!!!!!!
